R Project	Our project aims to create a DVD an educational resource for young people & adults in Brent on the subject of termination/abortion. The DVD will focus on the moral ethical personal social & medical issues related to abortion. Our DVD will focus on the different stages of abortion, health & other services available to young people, counsellors & support that is given during and after termination and to make young people aware of the health risks. Summary of project: For this project we are hoping to achieve a third DVD which will explore the different aspects of abortion, i.e.: medical and surgical abortion. We will go through each stages of abortion starting from the point of referral up until after a woman has gone through with abortion. We will also be looking @ the importance of choice around making informed decision without being judged around abortion. This project is not for or against abortion.	The young people involved in the project will achieve a youth achievement award and also increase their knowledge in all aspects of termination. The receivers will have the knowledge of where and how to support young people to gain knowledge and information regarding services for young people How young people will benefit from the project: Young people will benefit from the project in a vast way, for example they will have confidence when it comes to making choices as they will have knowledge to make informed decision which is core in today's society. They will get insight knowledge and information which they may not get in leaflets. Furthermore young people can undergo the youth achievement award, which will help them in their near further.	18 th Aug 08 – Mar 09	16+ years Mon, Weds, Fri Times flexible Sexual Health On Call (SHOC) Queenspark Station, bus 206	Jaheda Ali Brian Whitehead SHOC 22 Lonsdale Road Queens Park London NW6 6RD 0207 604 4826 shoc@gp- e84025.nhs.uk	£17,360 YOF

Steel Pan in the Community	For Young people to learn to play steel pan and to perform what they learn at community events, residential care homes, luncheon clubs etc. for the disadvantaged in our community and people with disabilities and older people. It is also hoped that we take part in the Notting Hill Carnival 2009, the Panorama Steel Band Competition and also other pan events organised by The British Association of Steel Bands (BAS).	They will develop teamwork skills, raised self-esteem & self worth and create a positive profile of young people from Brent. Roundwood Kitchen Renovation	The kitchen in the Roundwood centre is heavily used by the young people that use the centre and by members of the community. The kitchen has been there for a number of years and was starting to look old, also due to the large units wheelchair bound young people could not use the facility. It was decided by the young people that it would be beneficial to all to have the kitchen renovated, so that it meets health and safety requirements, disabled young people will be able to access the kitchen and different groups that wanted to use the kitchen had a modern kitchen to use.	Young people will be able to gain skills in cooking, healthy eating, food preparation, working together. The current kitchen is not accessible for young people in wheelchairs, so the new kitchen will be built to accommodate wheelchair users. All young people from other projects that use the centre will also have access to the facility. Youth Musical Project	We are putting on an original musical, written, produced and managed by young people living in Brent with the support and guidance from local youth organisations and experienced facilitators. The musical will be of a professional standard so as to be toured around theatres locally and nationally. The project will involve a small group of young people coming together to work on the story idea, style/direction/, music and direction of the musical. Once the story line has been decided, we will then run workshops to support and promote our ideas for the musical and show young people what a musical is all about. Our aim is to involve as many young people as possible from all areas in Brent, to come together and work on one big project; using and showcasing all our talents. Auditions will be held in order to give anyone interested in the project to showcase their talents in order for us to choose the right person for the role.	Young people will benefit from the project by being part of an exciting and ambitious event. Through their involvement they will benefit from: learning and improving on skills, managing and organising a production, having an opportunity to showcase their talents to their family, friends and also important people from the creative industry. Talents such as dance, acting, designing, writing, stage management, promoting and music, will be showcased in the musical. No matter what talents or interest you have, there will be an area for young people to showcase their skills; and with the support of dance, music and acting facilitators, this is an opportunity to try out new creative arts or improve on what you already know.	1st Sept 08 – Mar 09	14-24 yrs Monday & Tuesday developmental workshops 6-9pm Auditions Nov 3rd – 6th 5-8pm Rehearsal times TBC Granville Plus Youth Arts 80 Granville Rd, Kilburn, NW6 5RA Kilburn Park / Queens Park / 6 / 206 / 316	Antiallia Canoville / Marlene Kalula Caroline Chinakwe / Feka Concrete Canvas Arts The Marian Centre, 1 Stafford Road, London NW6 5RS 02073289669 07932640911 caroline@concretecan vasarts.org	£16,020 YOF
