

Self-assessment form

This self-assessment form should be completed by the complaints officer and it must be reviewed and approved by the landlord's governing body at least annually.

Once approved, landlords must publish the self-assessment as part of the annual complaints performance and service improvement report on their website. The governing body's response to the report must be published alongside this.

Landlords are required to complete the self-assessment in full and support all statements with evidence, with additional commentary as necessary.

We recognise that there may be a small number of circumstances where landlords are unable to meet the requirements, for example, if they do not have a website. In these circumstances, we expect landlords to deliver the intentions of the Code in an alternative way, for example by publishing information in a public area so that it is easily accessible.

Section 1: Definition of a complaint

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
1.2	A complaint must be defined as: 'an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the landlord, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting a resident or group of residents.'	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.1)	The definition in the Complaints Policy reads: "A complaint is defined as an expression of dissatisfaction, however made, about the standard of service, actions or lack of action by the organisation, its own staff, or those acting on its behalf, affecting an individual or several individuals." The reference to residents has been removed as anyone can make a complaint, not just residents.
1.3	A resident does not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. Whenever a resident expresses dissatisfaction landlords must give them the choice to make a complaint. A complaint that is submitted via a third party or representative must be handled in line with the landlord's complaints policy.	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.1 & 3.2)	Residents do not have to use the word complaint for it to be treated as one and a complaint submitted via a third party or representative is handled in line with the Council's complaints policy. As per the policy and definition above, a complaint could be made about the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Delay in taking action without good reason • Failure to provide a service • Mistakes in the way a decision was taken • Not following the law or the Council's own rules • Broken promises • Giving incorrect or misleading

				information <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Bias or discrimination • Rude, unhelpful or inappropriate behaviour by staff • Poor communication Complaint training provided to staff also reiterates that residents do not have to use the word 'complaint' for it to be treated as such. Recommendations following Complaint Learning Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Workshops, training and guidance to improve our tolerance of dissatisfaction, and how we are identifying and recording potential complaints. • An internal campaign, using case studies, to improve identification of dissatisfaction due to potential service failings and strengthen root cause analysis.

First analysis to be published in our Housing Management Complaints Performance Review later this year.
1.5	A complaint must be raised when the resident expresses dissatisfaction with the response to their service request, even if the handling of the service request remains ongoing. Landlords must not stop their efforts to address the service request if the resident complains.	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.1)	The Council will log a complaint where the complainant is not happy with the way in which their service request/s has/have been handled. The Council will continue to take action on the requests raised whilst the complaint is being investigated.

1.6	An expression of dissatisfaction with services made through a survey is not defined as a complaint, though wherever possible, the person completing the survey should be made aware of how they can pursue a complaint if they wish to. Where landlords ask for wider feedback about their services, they also must provide details of how residents can complain.	Yes	Awareness of complaints process in tenant satisfaction surveys	The Council will outline where appropriate, how a resident can raise a complaint should they express dissatisfaction through a survey or any other feedback mechanism. We will include in our tenant satisfaction surveys information on how residents can pursue any dissatisfaction with the service they have received through the complaints process.

Section 2: Exclusions

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
2.1	Landlords must accept a complaint unless there is a valid reason not to do so. If landlords decide not to accept a complaint they must be able to evidence their reasoning. Each complaint must be considered on its own merits	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 8.1)	The Council accepts all complaints unless there is a valid reason not to, including where it falls within Appendix 1 of the Complaints Policy. Recommendations following Complaint Learning Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reinforce in training and guidance • To be added as an assessment point on the complaints audit programme

2.2	A complaints policy must set out the circumstances in which a matter will not be considered as a complaint or escalated, and these circumstances must be fair and reasonable to residents. Acceptable exclusions include: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • The issue giving rise to the complaint occurred over twelve months ago. • Legal proceedings have started. This is defined as details of the claim, such as the Claim Form and Particulars of Claim, having been filed at court. • Matters that have previously been considered under the complaints policy. 	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.4)	The Complaints Policy clearly outlines what can and cannot be considered under the Council's complaints process. The circumstances are fair and reasonable and in line with Housing Ombudsman guidance.
2.3	Landlords must accept complaints referred to them within 12 months of the issue occurring or the resident becoming aware of the issue, unless they are excluded on other grounds. Landlords must consider whether to apply discretion to accept complaints made outside this time limit where there are good reasons to do so.	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.4)	The Council accepts complaints that are made within 12 months of the issue occurring or the complainant becoming aware of the issue unless they are excluded on other grounds. There may be occasions where the Council will apply discretion to investigate complaints which exceed the 12 months period. The Complaints Policy states: "The Council will accept complaints made within 12 months of the issue occurring or the individual being made aware of the issue, unless

				excluded on other grounds such as the ones outlined in section 8.1 of this policy. The Council will not normally accept a complaint where the customer has delayed raising the complaint with the Council by more than 12 months. The Council recommends that contact is made as soon as possible, to ensure access to data is readily available. Complaints exceeding 12 months will be considered on a case by case basis."
2.4	If a landlord decides not to accept a complaint, an explanation must be provided to the resident setting out the reasons why the matter is not suitable for the complaints process and the right to take that decision to the Ombudsman. If the Ombudsman does not agree that the exclusion has been fairly applied, the Ombudsman may tell the landlord to take on the complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.4)	If a complaint is not to be considered, the resident will still receive a response detailing reasons why the complaint cannot be considered and the response will include escalation rights. Recommendations following Complaint Learning Review: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Reinforce in training and guidance • To be added as an assessment point on the complaints audit programme
2.5	Landlords must not take a blanket approach to excluding complaints; they must consider the individual circumstances of each complaint.	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.4)	The Council will consider complaints exceeding 12 months on a case by case basis. This is noted in the Complaints Policy. We also have a Vexatious Complaints Policy which we follow but this again will consider individual circumstances of the case.

Section 3: Accessibility and Awareness

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
3.1	Landlords must make it easy for residents to complain by providing different channels through which they can make a complaint. Landlords must consider their duties under the Equality Act 2010 and anticipate the needs and reasonable adjustments of residents who may need to access the complaints process.	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.3)	Complaints can be raised via email, in person, by telephone or using the online form or portal. They can also be submitted via a Councillor or directly to officers if the resident asks for an issue to be processed through the complaints process. We accept all forms of communication including verbal, written or online. The Council is committed to ensuring that all residents can access its services and are not disadvantaged in any way. Below are some of the adjustments that can be offered which are outlined in the Council's Complaints Policy: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • use of email or telephone in preference to hard copy letters • use of plain English or Easy Read service on our website • communication through a representative or intermediary • rest or comfort breaks in meetings. • provision of information in appropriate alternative formats (eg. large print, Braille, coloured paper etc.) • provision of auxiliary aids

			The Equality Act 2010 introduced the Public Sector Equality Duty (PSED) which the Council considers when carrying out day-to-day functions, crafting policies and delivering services. All staff undertake equality and diversity training, which is part of the Council's essential training programme. The Council's Equalities Strategy Lead officer is currently undertaking an overarching piece of work which is reviewing accessibility to the Council – not just in terms of physical access but also looking at how residents and customers are able to interact with us and access services/support based on, for example, our use of language in corporate materials. Low complaint volumes are potentially a sign that residents are unable to complain.	Yes	We provide this narrative in our Annual Complaints Report	The Council welcomes complaints as a way of learning and agrees that the number of complaints is not indicative of a high number of issues within the borough, it can demonstrate awareness of the complaints process. Recommendations following Complaint Learning Review:

Section 6: Complaints Stages

Stage 1

Code provision	Code requirement	Comply: Yes / No	Evidence	Commentary / explanation
6.1	Landlords must have processes in place to consider which complaints can be responded to as early as possible, and which require further investigation. Landlords must consider factors such as the complexity of the complaint and whether the resident is vulnerable or at risk. Most stage 1 complaints can be resolved promptly, and an explanation, apology or resolution provided to the resident.	Yes	Complaints Policy (Under point 3.5)	The Council will aim to respond to complaints as early as possible and specifically where there are any risks or vulnerabilities involved and the issue is current/live as well as if the complaint raises something urgent, like an outstanding repair, we will seek to progress that as soon as possible, at the same time as pursuing a complaint investigation.
