2. A foreign offence is an offence (other than a relevant offence) under the law of any place outside England and Wales, including other parts of the United Kingdom, such as Scotland.
3. If you are convicted of any relevant or foreign offence during the period between when your application is made and when your application is determined or withdrawn, you must notify the authority to which your application was made.
Failure to do so without reasonable excuse could lead to prosecution and a fine.
