

Michael Preston-Shoot is Professor Emeritus of Social Work at the University of Bedfordshire, where he was previously Executive Dean of the Faculty of Health and Social Sciences. He is a Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences. He holds a National Teaching Fellowship awarded by the Higher Education Academy.

His research, teaching and publications have concentrated on law and social work practice, including a longitudinal study of the outcomes of teaching law to social work students. His recent research has focused on the governance of adult safeguarding, on effective practice with adults who self-neglect and thematic reviews of Safeguarding Adults Reviews. He was Independent Chair of Luton's Local Safeguarding Children Board and Safeguarding Adults Board. He is now Independent Chair of Brent Safeguarding Adults Board and Lewisham Safeguarding Adults Board. He is the author of serious case reviews and safeguarding adult reviews, and regularly provides training and consultancy on legal literacy and adult safeguarding.