open to all.

Hello!

There are many places where you can go for a free hot meal, regardless of circumstances. We have listed some of them here, and they are all places where you would be made welcome, without booking and without having to explain yourself.

We have taken care to assure ourselves that all the places listed follow good practice in providing food in this way. You should be aware that services sometimes change at short notice, and some services may become unavailable. For Christmas and Ramadan opening times, check with individual providers.

Where a place is marked “suitable for children”, we have taken a range of factors into consideration. If any provider would like to discuss this with us, we would be pleased to receive a call.

This list is not exhaustive. We will be happy to hear from any providers who would like to have their service considered for inclusion in a future edition. We will also be happy to receive requests from organisations looking for further copies of this leaflet.

Sufra North West London is a community organisation which provides a wide range of services, including a Food Bank and a free Friday evening meal.

Our services provide a life-line for people in crisis, including families living in extreme poverty and people who are vulnerable, homeless, or socially isolated.

We provide our guests with the food and support they urgently need to survive; empower them to learn new skills and improve their wellbeing; and help them to become financially stable, by addressing benefit problems and by providing help to get into work.

Our food bank provides emergency supplies of essential food and toiletries to people experiencing acute crisis. We are open on Wednesday and Sunday from 12.00 to 3pm.

If you are in need, you are welcome to visit us. You will need a voucher, which you can obtain by phoning Brent Council Welfare Team before coming. If they assess that you are eligible, they will email a voucher to us. If you prefer, you can come on Wednesday and we will phone for you.
